DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

S. B. BUCKNER,

of Hart County.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,

J. W. BRYAN,

of Kenton County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,

P. W. HARDIN,

of Mercer County.

FOR AUDITOR,

FAYETTE HEWITT,

of Hardin County.

FOR TREASURER,

JAS. W. TATE,

of Woodford County.

FOR SUPT. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

JOS. DESHA PICKETT,

of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,

THOMAS H. CORBETT,

of McCracken County.

FOR STATE SENATOR, SIXTH DISTRICT,

ZENO F. YOUNG,

of Hopkins County.

Mr. Blaine has reached England and is now doing London.

The coffee market is still unsettled. An additional decline of 2 cents was reported Saturday.

Bob Thomas has moved the Russellville Dispatch office to Greenville and the first number appeared at that place Friday reduced in size.

The members of the R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, were entertained at Boston Sunday by the G. A. R. men. Let us have peace.

The National Association of Liquor Dealers, which met in Chicago last week, made arrangements to fight prohibition in Texas and Tennessee.

Leggett, the Georgia mudderer, who was saved by a desperate race against time by his attorney who carried a reprieve, a month ago, was hanged at Reidsville Friday.

The Republican candidate for the Senate never tries to make a speech. He is the Hue of his party, not its spokesman. That's the kind of fellow he is.

There are two vacancies on the Republican ticket. White men would not have the empty honors and negroes can't get them. The Gone Overboard Party is in a bad fix.

Gen. Hardin has made the following appointments: Mayfield, June 20; Clinton, 21; Wickliffe, 21 at night; Hickman, 22; Paducah, 23, at night; Smithland, 24; Marion, 25; Bowling Green, 17.

Editor O'Brien has returned to Ireland and was received in Dublin Sunday with a great ovation, his carriage being dragged through the streets by his enthusiastic admirers.

The Remains of Joel T. Hart, the sculptor, which were removed from Italy by an act of the last Legislature, were publicly interred at Frankfort Saturday with much pomp and ceremony.

Col. Blywater stated in his recent speech here that the article copied into the Kentuckyian from the Litchfield Gazette was a "pack of lies." They were the Colonel's own statements and he knew the trademark.

Mrs. Rosa H. Wilson, the temperance lecturer who stumped this country last fall, was married at Leitchfield Ky., Tuesday June 14th, to Mr. W. R. Winstead, of Dixon, Ky. Mr. Winstead will enter the lecture field with his wife.

The election of Bill Chandler, of New Hampshire, to the Senate completes the elections. The Republicans have 39 and the Democrats 37 Senators, though there will be a protest against the seating of two of the Democrats.

Watt Hardin has no opponent of his own and Bradley will not meet him, so what is the poor fellow to do? He is loaded to the muzzle and stands ready to open fire whenever he is confronted, but no Republican can be found who will meet him on the stump.

Jno. J. Cornelison and his father-in-law, Rev. Thos. Munnell, have been indicted by the grand jury of Montgomery Co. for libeling the Commonwealth's Attorney by distributing a circular headed, "The Fraudulent Indictment against Jno. J. Cornelison." Equire Stofer, who released Cornelison, was not indicted.

The failure of the attempted corner in wheat, which occurred at Chicago last week, stranded some of the strongest firms of speculators in the west. The price of wheat dropped from 93 to 73 cents. The clique's banks failed to come to time with as much money to back it as had been promised. Wheat was quoted at 73 cents Saturday.

Hon. Dick Key, who was elected to the Legislature from Hopkins some years ago as a Greenbacker, is out as a candidate for Representative in that county on the Union Labor ticket. There is no Republican candidate, but there will be no fusion and he cannot hope to get more than 200 or 400 votes. He doubtless makes the race merely to test the strength of the new party.

In Hon. John Feland's card of dedication, published in the Louisville Republican, that gentleman frankly says:

"And further, it is due to myself and my party to say, that my past action on the convict labor question and my present convictions, are not in strict harmony with the platform of my party, and as I have no apologies to make for my past action, and can not yield my present convictions on that subject, I feel that my position on the ticket would be embarrassing to me and to the same extent injurious to the ticket if I were, under the circumstances, to accept the nomination tendered to me.

Satisfied that another and an able man of the party can be found to take the place, I must decline the nomination tendered me, assuring you that I shall give my hearty support to the ticket and aid it every way I can."

Mr. Feland's position is somewhat inconsistent. He declines to be associated with others on the ticket, whose views he can not endorse, and yet will support the ticket. Mr. Feland should cut loose from a party whose principles he cannot adopt as his own. He is too good a man to be a Republican anyhow.

The great Democratic rally at Lexington on the 15th was attended by 20,000 people. It was the biggest political gathering held in Kentucky for forty years.

Gen. Buckner in a plain but forcible manner made a speech that is a complete refutation of every Republican lie that is being circulated by those who are doing the dirty work of the Republican party this season. It bristled with facts that no honest and fair minded man could hear and not be convinced of their truth. Senator McDonald and Green Smith, of Indiana, Messrs. Beck, Blackburn, McKenzie, Bryan and various other speakers followed Gen. Buckner. The tables were spread all day and the crowd ate at any time during the day that their appetites suggested. The whole affair was a grand success.

The man on the Memphis Times thus expresses himself:

A good deal of criticism has been indulged by Kentucky journalists on Miss Amelia Harper because in her last poem in Harper's she made "corn" rhyme with "gone." If there is any one word that the average Kentuckian considers sacred from the unhalloved liberties of mundane levity and the fickle changes of fashion, it is the word "corn" with all the ripe memories and the mellow associations that cling thereto. Furthermore the flouting of "corn" with the melancholy and futile verb "gone" was a subtle stab at the integrity of old traditions, that would naturally have as depressing an effect upon a Kentuckian as a mystic epiphany seen through the dregs of a departed cocktail.

Mr. Hub Lunsford, of Hopkins county, after deliberating for two months has concluded to place himself before the Democratic buzz saw and has declared himself a candidate for the Senate. He is about 55 years old and his only qualification for the position is a lot of boodle which he possesses and which he is expected to turn loose in the campaign. He represented Hopkins county in the last Legislature, elected by a combination of liquor men and Republicans, and had a bill passed in the House to re-submit the prohibition question in Hopkins, which was killed in the Senate by Mr. Feland.

Mr. Stuart R. Knott, assistant to the First Vice President of the L. & N. railroad, has returned to his post of duty after a three months' absence, caused by a severe attack of typhoid fever. During his convalescence he visited Old Point Comfort, New York and other points in the East in search of strength. He comes back much improved and ready for business.—Courier Journal.

Mr. Knott's restoration to health will be noted with pleasure by his many newspaper friends.

Mrs. Fannie Hill, of Blue Ball, will be one hundred years old on the 30th of this month and on that anniversary her centennial will be appropriately celebrated at Blue Ball church. On the 28th of last month her husband, "Uncle" Johnnie Hill, was ninety-nine. This is perhaps the oldest couple living in Kentucky and as their lives have been full of usefulness and good deeds the event of the 30th will be participated in by a tremendous concourse of friends.—Elizabethtown News.

The Union Labor party held a convention at Lagrange last week, which was attended by about 40 delegates, and nominated the following ticket: For Governor, A. H. Cargis, of Crittenden; for Lieutenant Governor, O. N. Bradburn, of Louisville; for Attorney General, John P. Newman, of Campbell; for Treasurer, George Smith, of Hancock; for Auditor, John McCurny, of Fayette; for Superintendent of Public Instruction, R. M. McBeth, of Marion; for Register, Gano Henry, of Christian.

The campaign has opened up energetically in the State, and 25 speakers were advertised to speak at the towns of Nicholasville, Lawrenceburg, Elizabethtown, Mayfield, Mt. Sterling, Glasgow, Danville, Princeton, Carrollton, Irvine, Greensburg, Lagrange, Somerset, Franklin and Mt. Olivet. Gen. Buckner and Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie were assigned to the first named place, Gen. Hardin to Mayfield and Hon. John Young Brown to Princeton.

John Shee, a farmer, was drowned on the steamer Sherlock at August, Ky.

Much Ado About Nothing.

At the request of Gen. Drum and Secretary Endicott, who desired to get rid of several boxes of old rubbish deposited in the War Department building at Washington, President Cleveland signed an order last week authorizing the return to certain States of a number of old flags surrendered when the war ended in 1865. This action, which was regarded as of so little importance that the order was signed without investigation, at once kicked up a tremendous racket among a lot of Grand Asses who have not yet learned that the war is over. Fairchild, the head of the Grand Army, made himself especially conspicuous for assiduity by making a bloody shirt harangue in which he cursed the President and made an ass of himself generally. The President investigated the matter for himself when his attention was called to it and issued the following order, which will probably have the effect of removing all danger of a renewal of hostilities by the cranks who love to boast of their past achievements, and whose views are not shared by the really brave and patriotic Union soldiers:

"I have today considered with more care than when the subject was orally presented to me, the action of your department, directing letters to be addressed to the Governors of all the States, offering to return, if desired, to the loyal States the Union flags captured in the war of the rebellion by the Confederate forces, and after wards recovered by Government troops; to the Confederate States the flags captured by the Union forces, all of which, for many years, have been packed in boxes and stored in the cellar and attic of the War Department. I am of the opinion that the return of these flags in the manner thus contemplated is not authorized by existing law, nor justified as an Executive act.

I request, therefore, that no further steps be taken in the matter, except to examine and inventory these flags, and adopt proper measures for their preservation. Any directions as to the final disposition of them should originate with Congress.

Railroad robbers are getting in their work out west at a lively rate. There were three or four robberies last week, the most important being near Houston, Tex., at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning. Ten men boarded the train at a small station and went through the cars, relieving the sleeping passengers of $5,000 worth of money and valuables and the express car of probably as much more. Posses are searching the country for the robbers.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Sept. 18, 1882.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Have taken Hall's Catarrh Cure. Had catarrh all my life; am 48 years old. Had asthma 19 years, and a dreadful cough for five years. Have taken everything; went to the Hot Springs; I have doctored with the doctors here; I have done nothing but take medicine for 19 years. When I commenced using Hall's Catarrh Cure, I was almost dead. I sent for the doctor the day I got Hall's Catarrh Cure, and I told him that I would die any way and that I would try your medicine. I was very bad. How I suffered for 9 years! I could hardly breathe at times. I saw Hall's Catarrh Cure advertised in the papers and commenced taking it. I would have been under the ground to-day if it had not been for that. I have not had one bad spell of coughing since. In breathing my head feels well and it is helping them. I only wish that every one who has catarrh, asthma and a bad cough could see me, so that I could tell them all to take it. All that know me here know how I have suffered. (I have been here since 1858,) and say to me that "If am so glad you found something that could cure you." Everyone says, "How much better you look." The doctors say they are glad I found Hall's Catarrh Cure as they could not cure me. I cannot express my gratitude to you for the good Hall's Catarrh Cure has done me. You can use as much of this letter as will do the afflicted good. Publish it to the whole world—it is all true and they should know it. JOSEPHINE CHESMAN, 406 East North St.

There seems to be still a great deal of uncertainty about whether Mrs. Tillie M. Harrison cowhided Mr. Menden over at the little Indiana town of Scottsville. One way to settle it is for Mrs. Harrison to thrash Mr. Menden again so there could be no doubt about it, though of course we do not put this in the shape of advice to the lady.—Times.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission has rendered a decision on the petition of the L. & N. and other southern railroads, praying for a suspension of the long and short haul clause. The decision is virtually a triumph for the roads, though it does not decide much.

Sallic Cowherd stabbed and killed Emma Dobony, at Lebanon, with a barlow knife. Both colored.

CROFTON.

CROFTON, Ky., June 19, 1887.—Miss Charlie Croft, who has been attending school at Bardstow, Ky., returned home yesterday.

Prof. McGuirk and family left yesterday for Madisonville, Ky. The young people of our town are making an effort to get up money enough to buy an organ for the church at this place. The move is a good one and should be crowned with success. A generous hearted man from your city, sent us a check for $10 to be used as a subscription to purchase an organ. Should any others from your city feel able to assist us they can send money to C. A. Brasher, who will see that it is properly used.

Several cases of dysentery have been reported last week.

Mrs. J. B. Jackson is visiting at White Plains, Ky. this week. A suspicious looking character entered a drug store here the other day and asked for 2½ grains of morphine, which was properly labelled and given him, whereupon he opened the package and took the contents. He survived but has not applied for any more.

Miss Jessie Long, of St. Charles, is visiting Miss Josie McIntosh. Genie McIntosh had his hands badly mangled Friday, by a window sash falling on them.

The Earlington picnic bills eclipse any we have seen this season. You should read them.

W. T. Stewart, contractor and builder at this place, left last week for the White Plains neighborhood, where he has contracted to build a fine house for John Stanley.

About the only effect Mr. Bradley's campaign speech (which he is energetically declaiming over the State) has yet produced was to drive from the Republican ticket the one man who possessed more brains than the whole lay-out combined.

Montgomery Co. for libeling the Commonwealth's Attorney by distributing a circular headed, "The Fraudulent Indictment against John J. Cor-leased Cornelson, was not indicted.

The failure of the attempted cor-west. The price of wheat dropped from 93 to 73 cents. The clique's banks failed to come to time with as cents Saturday.

Hon. Dick Key, who was elected a candidate for Representative in that on the ticket would be embarrassing to me and to the same extent injurious to the ticket if I were, under the circumstances, to accept the nomina-

Satisfied that another and an able man of the party can be found to take the place, I will decline the nomination tendered me, assuring you that I shall give my hearty support to the ticket and aid it every way I can." Mr. Feland's position is somewhat inconsistent. He declines to be associated with others on the ticket, whose views he can not endorse, and yet will support the ticket. Mr. Fe-land should cut loose from a party whose principles he cannot adopt as his own. He is too good a man to be a Republican anyhow.

The great Democratic rally at Lexington on the 15th was attended by 20,000 people. It was the biggest political gathering held in Kentucky for forty years. Gen. Buckner in a plain but forcible manner made a speech that is a complete refutation of every Republican lie that is being circulated by those who are doing the dirty work of the Republican party this season. It bristled with facts that no honest and fair minded man could hear and not be convinced of their truth. Senator McDonald and Green Smith, of Indiana, Messrs.
Beck, Blackburn, McKenzie, Bryan and various other speakers followed Gen. Buckner. The tables were spread all day and the crowd ate at any time during the day that their appetites suggested. The whole affair was a grand success.

The man on the Memphis Times who expresses himself:

A good deal of criticism has been indulged by Kentucky journalists on Miss Amelia Rives because in her last poem in Harper's she made "corn" rhyme with "gone." If there is any one word that the average Kentuckian considers sacred from the unallowable liberties of mundane levity and the fickle changes of fashion, it is the word "corn" with all the ripe memories and the mellow associations that cling thereto. Furthermore the linking of "corn" with the melancholy and futile verb "gone" was a subtle stab at the integrity of old traditions, that would naturally have as depressing an effect upon a Kentuckian as a mystic epitaph seen through the dregs of a departed cocktail.

Mr. Hub Lunsford, of Hopkins county, after deliberating for two months has concluded to place himself before the Democratic issue and has declared himself a candidate for the Senate. He is about 55 years old and his only qualification for the position is a lot of boodle which he possesses and which he is expected to turn loose in the campaign. He represented Hopkins county in the last Legislature, elected by a combination of liquor men and Republicans, and had a bill passed in the House to re-submit the prohibition question in Hopkins, which was killed in the Senate by Mr. Feland.

Mr. Stuart R. Knott, assistant to the First Vice President of the L. & N. railroad, has returned to his post of duty after a three months' absence, caused by a severe attack of typhoid fever. During his convalescence he visited Old Point Comfort, New York and other points in the East in search of strength. He comes back much improved and ready for business.—Courier Journal.

Mr. Knott's restoration to health will be noted with pleasure by his many newspaper friends.

Mrs. Fannie Hill, of Blue Ball, will be one hundred years old on the 30th of this month and on that anniversary her centennial will be appropriately celebrated at Blue Ball church. On the 28th of last month her husband, "Uncle" Johnnie Hill, was ninety-nine. This is perhaps the oldest couple living in Kentucky and as their lives have been full of usefulness and good deeds the event of the 30th will be participated in by a tremendous concourse of friends.—Elizabethtown News.

The Union Labor party held a convention at Lagrange last week, which was attended by about 40 delegates, and nominated the following ticket: For Governor, A. H. Cargin, of Crittenden; for Lieutenant Governor, O. N. Bradburn, of Louisville; for Attorney General, John P. Newman, of Campbell; for Treasurer, George Smith, of Hancock; for Auditor, John McCurny, of Fayette; for Superintendent of Public Instruction, R. M. McBeath, of Marion; for Register, Gano Henry, of Christian.

The campaign has opened up energetically in the State, and 25 speakers were advertised to speak at the towns of Nicholasville, Lawrenceburg, Elizabethtown, Mayfield, Mt. Sterling, Glasgow, Danville, Princeton, Carrollton, Irvine, Greensburg, La-Grange, Somerset, Franklin and Mt.
Olivet. Gen. Buckner and Hon. Jas.
A. McKenzie were assigned to the first named place, Gen. Hardin to Mayfield and Hon. John Young Brown to Princeton.

John Sheeha, a farmer, was drowned off the steamer Sherlock at Augusta, Ky.

Much Ado About Nothing.

At the request of Gen. Drum and Secretary Endicott, who desired to get rid of several boxes of old rubbish deposited in the War Department building at Washington, President Cleveland signed an order last week authorizing the return to certain States of a number of old flags surrendered when the war ended in 1865.
This action, which was regarded as of so little importance that the order was signed without investigation, at once kicked up a tremendous racket among a lot of Grand Asses who have not yet learned that the war is over. Fairchild, the head of the Grand Army, made himself especially conspicuous for animosity by making a bloody shirt harangue in which he cursed the President and made an ass of himself generally. The President investigated the matter for himself when his attention was called to it and issued the following order, which will probably have the effect of removing all danger of a renewal of hostilities by the cranks who love to boast of their past achievements, and whose views are not shared by the really brave and patriotic Union soldiers:

"I have today considered with more care than when the subject was orally presented to me, the action of your department, directing letters to be addressed to the Governors of all the States, offering to return, if desired, to the loyal States the Union flags captured in the war of the rebellion by the Confederate forces, and afterwards recovered by Government troops; to the Confederate States the flags captured by the Union forces, all of which, for many years, have been packed in boxes and stored in the cellar and attic of the War Department. I am of the opinion that the return of these flags in the manner thus contemplated is not authorized by existing law, nor justified as an Executive act.

I request, therefore, that no further steps be taken in the matter, except to examine and inventory these flags, and adopt proper measures for their preservation. Any directions as to the final disposition of them should originate with Congress.

Railroad robbers are getting in their work out west at a lively rate.
There were three or four robberies last week, the most important being near Houston, Tex., at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning. Ten men boarded the train at a small station and went through the cars, relieving the sleeping passengers of $5,000 worth of money and valuables and the express car of probably as much more. Poses are searching the country for the robbers.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Sept. 18, 1882.
Mess. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.
Have taken Hall's Catarrh Cure. Had catarrh all my life; am 48 years old.
Had asthma 19 years, and a dreadful cough for five years. Have taken everything; went to the Hot Springs; I have doctored with the doctors here; I have done nothing but take medicine for 19 years. When I commenced using Hall's Catarrh Cure, I was almost dead. I sent for the doctor the day I got Hall's Catarrh Cure, and I told him that I would die any way and that I would try your medicine.
I was very bad. How I suffered for 9 years! I could hardly breathe at times. I saw Hall's Catarrh Cure advertised in the papers and commenced taking it. I could hardly believe it would do me any good. I had under the ground to-day if it had not been for that. I have not had one bad spell of coughing since. In breathing my head feels well and I am well. It has done me a thousand dollars worth of good. There are ten of my friends, on seeing what it had done for me, taking it, and it is helping them. I only wish that every one who has catarrh, asthma and a bad cough could see me, so that I could tell them all to take it. All that know me here know how I have suffered. (I have been here since 1858.) and say to me that "if I am so glad found something that could cure you." Everyone says, "how much better you look." The doctors say they are glad I found Hall's Catarrh Cure as they could not cure me.

I cannot express my gratitude to you for the good Hall's Catarrh Cure has done me. You can use as much of this letter as will do the slightest good. Publish it to the whole world—it is all true and they should know it.
JOSEPHINE CHESMAN,
406 East North St.

There seems to be still a great deal of uncertainty about whether Mrs.
Tillie M. Harrison cowhided Mr.
Munden over at the little Indiana town of Scottsville. One way to settle it is for Mrs. Harrison to thrash Mr. Munden again so there could be no doubt about it, though of course we do not put this in the shape of advice to the lady.—Times.

The Inter-state Commerce Commission has rendered a decision on the petition of the L. & N. and other southern railroads, praying for a suspension of the long and short haul clause. The decision is virtually a triumph for the roads, though it does not decide much.

Salie Cowherd stabbed and killed Emma Dobony, at Lebanon, with a barlow knife. Both colored.

CROFTON.

CROFTON, Ky., June 19, 1887.—Miss Charlie Croft, who has been attending school at Bardonia, Ky., returned home yesterday.

Prof. McQuilkin and family left yesterday for Haden'sville, Ky.

The young people of our town are making an effort to get up money enough to buy an organ for the church at this place. The move is a good one and should be crowned with success. A generous hearted man from your city, sent us a check for $10 to be used as a subscription to purchase an organ. Should any others from your city feel able to assist us they can send money to C. A.
Brasher, who will see that it is properly used.

Several cases of dysentery have been reported last week.

Mrs. J. B. Jackson is visiting at White Plains, Ky., this week.

A suspicious looking character entered a drug store here the other day and asked for 2 1/2 grains of morphine, which was properly labelled and given him, whereupon he opened the package and took the contents. He survived but has not applied for any more.

Miss Jessie Long, of St. Charles, is visiting Miss Josie McIntosh.

Genie McIntosh had his hands badly smashed Friday, by a window sash falling on them.

The Earlinton picnic bills eclipse any we have seen this season. You should read them.

W. T. Stewart, contractor and builder at this place, left last week for the White Plains neighborhood, where he has contracted to build a fine house for John Stanley.

About the only effect Mr. Bradley's campaign speech (which is ultimately deciding over the State) has yet produced was to drive from the Republican ticket the one man who possessed more brains than the whole lay-out combined.
